SPECIAL INVESTIGATION OF ALL SCHOOLS IS REQUESTED

State Board of Education Advises Additional Safeguards be Installed

PROTECTION IS DEMANDED

Local Schools Reported to be Complying With Law in Every Respect—Fire Drills Being Held With Regularity.

Pursuant to the request of Dr. J. George Becht, secretary of the state board of education additional safeguards where needed will be placed in the schools of Charleroi. Dr. T. M. Faddis, secretary of the school board is in receipt of a statement from Dr. Becht that is in the nature of a circular letter being sent out to all boards, to make sure the chances of fire and destruction of life and property are reduced to the minimum.

Not much will have to be done at the Charleroi schools, where the law is being obeyed in every particular. However at one or two of the buildings perhaps it may be necessary to install a few new fire extinguishers.

All the Charleroi buildings are comparatively new, and consequently all are built in line with the latest ideas in fire protection. As a matter of fact they are all of fire proof design. All the doors open outward, and at the high school building there is an automatic arrangement by which all the doors open with the gentlest pressure. According to the finding of school men the greatest factor in loss of life at school fires has been that of the door which opens inward.

School fire drills are held monthly and some times oftener in all the buildings. Pupils never know when the drill is coming or whether it is simply a drill or a real fire that is being reported. In the shortest possible space of time the buildings are emptied. These drills are considered especially valuable.

The special investigation of all school buildings is being made at the request of Governor Brumbaugh submitted to the state board of education after two disastrous fires in different parts of the country.

ADAMS' EXPRESS DRIVER SAID TO HAVE APPROPRIATED FUNDS

Local Office Looking For Young Man Alleged to Have Disappeared From Monessen.

The Adams Express company are looking for an employee who drove a wagon from the Charleroi office in handling the Monessen trade, charging him with having gotten away with $27 of the company's money. His name is given as Tom Travnik. The last he was seen, it is said, was when he left a hardware store on Donner avenue, Monessen Wednesday at 1 o'clock. He had at the time about $27, the collections of the day. His horse was later located in front of the Kilroy hotel but he had disappeared. On Thursday the police in nearby towns were notified, as were the state police, who with Adams' Express company officers started a search for the young man.

CREDITORS' COMMITTEE HOPE TO MAKE SALE IS THE LATEST

Talk of Thompson's Financial Affairs Being Settled is Again Heard in Uniontown

A report was received in Uniontown Thursday from M. M. Cochran, a member of the creditors' committee now in New York prospecting for capitalists to take up the J. V. Thompson holdings and save from financial destruction the Thompson creditors, that the committee had reason to believe that it would be successful.

The belief in Uniontown is that the committee has succeeded in persuading New York financiers to purchase the Thompson holdings. Not in months have the Thompson creditors been so hopeful.

Campbell Dwelling at California Burns While Mrs. Campbell is in Charleroi

LOSES PERSONAL BELONGINGS

Here over Wednesday night to assist Mrs. J. Hindmarsh, her sister at the funeral of Clement J. Mathews, Mrs. William Campbell of California received word Thursday of the destruction of her home by fire. The fire started at about 1 o'clock, while Mrs. Campbell was in the house. He succeeded in getting out, but could save none of the furnishings. The loss was about $1,000 on the house and $500 on the furniture. It is partly covered by insurance.

The building in which the Campbells lived was owned by George and William Gordon of Brownsville, it being a five-story dwelling.

The origin of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to have started from a spark from the grate in the dining room. The first Mrs. Campbell knew of the blaze was when her husband telephoned early Thursday morning. Many of her personal belongings were destroyed.

RAILROAD READY TO OPEN NEW CAR SHOPS

Pennsylvania Follows Lead of Various Coal Companies In Issuing Call For Workmen—Improvements at Shire Oaks Costly

Large new car shops are to be opened within a brief time at Shire Oaks by the Pennsylvania Railroad, which closely follows the lead of coal companies along the Monongahela valley in sending out a general call for additional workmen. At the Shire Oaks shops it is stated there are several good jobs for men who want to enter the railroad service, with the pay ranging from $2.50 to $3.00 per day. Workmen have been engaged for several months in the erection of the new Shire Oaks shops and now that they are completed, the company is prepared to handle about 250 cars a day, where formerly the capacity was about 100 cars a day. There are a number of men at work on the repair jobs at present. W. C. Linder is the foreman in charge. The improvements at Shire Oaks are worthy ones, with the cost ranging around $6,000. The new car shops are said to be among the finest in the country. There are a number of sanitary bath rooms, rest rooms and other conveniences for the workmen.

EIGHT CASES DISPOSED OF IN CRIMINAL LIST

Violations Range From Illegal Liquor Selling to Chicken Theft. With Sentences Being Imposed in Each Case.

Eight cases of Thursday's criminal trial list and five criminal cases set for next Monday and advanced were disposed of. There remain a few cases. None are set for Saturday. Homicide cases are listed for Monday and other days next week. The case of the commonwealth against Joseph Aura, charged with killing Frank Raguso at Houston is the first on the list Monday.

John York, alias Charles Johnson, colored, convicted Thursday of larceny and horse stealing was sentenced to an indeterminate term in the penitentiary of from five to ten years. On the two charges of larceny against him he was given from three to ten years in the penitentiary, these sentences to run concurrent with the first. In 1911 York was convicted in this county of horse stealing and was sent by the late Judge Taylor to the penitentiary, one to four years. The prosecutors in the cases heard yesterday were S. B. Jenkins of near Claysville and J. N. Montgomery, Sr., and R. B. McClellan both of Claysville. The horse that was stolen was taken from the pasture field of Mr. Jenkins, west of Claysville. From an alley by the stable of J. N. Montgomery, in Claysville was taken the buggy and from the stable of Mr. McClellan was taken the set of harness.

G. U. Shaw, a wholesale liquor dealer of Ohio street, Pittsburg, indicted for a violation of the liquor laws in the manner in which he made distribution of his goods in this county, entered a plea of nolo contendere, just before noon. Sentence was suspended until Monday, December 13.

At the last term of court several agents, who had represented Mr. Shaw in handling liquors shipped by him, were indicted for selling liquor without license, entered pleas of guilty.

MANY APPLICATIONS FOR AUTO LICENSES

State Highway Department Receives 4,000 Demands for Plates—Will Make Issues December 1—No Excuses For Neglect.

More than 4,000 applications have been received for 1916 automobile licenses by the automobile division of the State highway department. The new license plates have been received by the department and beginning December 1 they will be sent out to those who have applied for them.

State Highway Commissioner Cunningham Thursday issued a statement in which he urged on the owners and operators of automobiles the importance of sending in their 1916 applications at once. In previous years the State Highway Department has not enforced the law relative to the use of old license plates on automobiles in the early part of the new year, but Commissioner Cunningham announced that the automobile division of the State Highway Department is prepared to send out plates as soon as applications are received, prior to December 31 and no excuse will be accepted from owners and operators who neglect to apply for their licenses before the first of the new year.

DRUG INTERESTS SEEKING TO HAVE GERMAN PATENTS REVOKED

Will Petition Administration and Congress to Effect Change in the Present Laws.

Drug interests already are besieging the administration in an effort to ascertain the attitude congress will assume toward the scarcity of drugs formerly imported from Germany and which cannot be manufactured in this country because of the patent laws. While it is expected that the shortage of drugs will be considered by congress it is not believed any change will be made in the laws to permit the manufacture of patented drugs in this country.

At the last session of congress it was suggested that the best method to avert the drug shortage threatened as a result of the European war, would be to revoke the patents on the drugs manufactured in Germany so that American manufacturing chemists could take up their manufacture.

Charleroi Business Men's Association Takes up Betterment of Service

REQUESTS TO BE PRESENTED

Local Committee to Take Up Improvement of Service With Postal Authorities—Other Matters of Importance are Considered.

An effort will be made to have Charleroi made the headquarters for a rural delivery route, the plan to be brought to the postal authorities to be that Speers No. 1 route be changed to the local postoffice. Also while this is being done the postal authorities will be asked to improve the service here in regard to the arrival of morning mail trains from Pittsburg. Such was the decision of the Charleroi Business Men's Association at their meeting Thursday evening around their dinner table at the public reading rooms. The meeting was the first one at which dinner was served and it proved eminently successful. There was a large attendance of members.

In taking up the matters of securing a rural delivery route from Charleroi and improved mail train service, a committee was appointed to consist of L. Greenberg, T. J. Allen, Charles S. Van Voorhis and J. B. Tensing to confer with the proper persons. It was complained that the morning mail service is such that there is no mail received from about 7:30 o'clock in the morning until near noon. The opinion was that there should be mail carried on the nine o'clock train.

Complaint was made that factory crossings were blocked often by railroad freight trains and that because of this in going to and from work factory employees had frequently to climb across the trains. It was decided to draft a letter asking Superintendent A. G. Mitchell to effect some sort of an arrangement for cutting trains so as to leave the crossings open.

The matter of the adoption of a definite credit system was taken up, with the result that it was held over until the next meeting, when every merchant in Charleroi will be asked to attend. Full explanation will be made at this time.

Louis Gozou of the Central Trades Council was present asking the Business Men's Association to appoint a committee to work conjointly with one from the Trades council in the matter of the entertainment of the Pittsburg District convention of miners here next spring. The committee appointed consisted of W. C. Clark, John R. Kelly, M. T. Crowley and W. B. Patterson.

John G. Staudenmayer, manufacturer of fine ice cream and proprietor of the Quality bake shop of Monessen will offer his business and property for sale at a bargain to a quick buyer. Reason—going to engage in a different business. 126-14

RAILROAD TRESPASSING.

Discussing a record of trespassers killed and injured on a certain railroad during the month of August last, a correspondent of the press, before a group of the press, urges as a movement for safety greater general interest in matters of protection. He says:

"There is nothing unusual about this record, because it is only one out of twelve similar records that constitute the officials of this railroad each year, one for each month in the year.
It is not a pleasing record, but it is a grimly faithful one and strikingly illustrates the unfailing precision with which the toll of life and limb is exacted from those who recklessly disregard their personal safety by walking along railroad tracks.

"Not one of the persons listed on the report were employees of the railroad. Not one of them had any right to be on the railroad property. There was no reason for a single one of these unfortunates contributing his life or limb to a needless and appalling sacrifice. And yet this monthly record continues with endless regularity on every American steam railroad and is multiplied until it reaches the horrifying total of more than 10,000 human beings killed and seriously injured in the country in this manner every year. More than half of this number are fatal.
Statistics have proven that the majority of the lives thus sacrificed are of valuable wage earning citizens.

Many of them are women and children.
What is to be done about it? The press is unable to accomplish anything in the way of stopping it without the assistance of the public.

"Passengers on the trains of American railroads are practically immune from death or serious injury due to the safety and efficiency of railroad operation. The latest annual report of the Interstate Commerce Commission indicates only 85 passengers killed in train accidents in an entire year in spite of the fact that 10,325, 000,000 passengers were carried, a figure equal to ten times the population of the United States. Is not the man with his dinner pail on his arm, who thoughtlessly uses the railroad tracks as a public thoroughfare, just as dear to his family and of just as great a value to the community as though he bought a ticket to ride?

Then why should we not have laws which will require these persons, who trespass on railroads, to guard against injuring themselves by keeping off railroad rights of way?

"This annual needless slaughter
of more than 5,000 American citizens, mostly wage earners, will continue until the restraining hand of congress is raised and a Federal law enacted, carrying a severe penalty, which will effectively prohibit railroad trespassing. The economic loss to the nation involved in the killing and maiming of these persons amounts to many millions of dollars a year. The enactment and enforcement of a Federal law against railroad trespassing would not cost the nation a penny, but would save countless lives and prevent a great economic waste. In the interests of economy and for the sake of humanity this ought to be done."

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"You're swindler," exclaimed Mrs.
Gordon as she entered the bird store.
"You're worse than a highway robber. You ought to be ashamed of yourself to cheat a poor innocent woman the way you did. The parrot I bought of you last week is a fraud.
You said it was a fluent talker and you charged me a big price for him.
Too, and that bird hasn't said a single word since I got him. Not one word.
Do you hear? Not one—single—word!"

"Perhaps," suggested the bird fan-cier mildly, "you didn't give him a chance."

Webster was out one day on the marshes near Marshfield, busily shooting birds. It was a hot afternoon in August. The fowls were getting their salt hay on the marshes.

He came in the course of his rambles, to the Green Harbor river, which he wished to cross. He beckoned to one of the men on the opposite bank to take him over in his boat, which lay moored in sight. The man at once left his work came over and paddled Mr. Webster across the stream. He declined the payment offered him, but lingered a moment, with Yankee curiosity to question the stranger. He surmised who Mr.
Webster was, and with some hesitation remarked:

"That is Daniel Webster, I believe."
"That is my name," replied the sportsman.

"Well, now," said the farmer, "I am told that you can make from $3 to $5 a day, pleading cases in Boston."

Mr. Webster replied that he was sometimes so fortunate as to receive that amount for his services.
"Well, now," returned the rustic,
"it seems to me, I declare, if I could get as much in the city pleadin' law-cases. I would not be a-vadin' over these marshes this hot weather,
shootin' little birds."

Electric Sparks

Since they seem unable to reach Jess Willard's face it would be proper doubtless to speak of his inaccessible features.

No man can satisfy everybody, but when he fails to satisfy himself there is reason for an abrupt change of conduct.

The Germans shoot a few holes in the bottom of a vessel and the English come along and do it in a new way, then we hear of the French price court seizing a ship. Dazed by all this information about the only thing left for the United States to do and remain perfectly safe, sane and neutral is to engage in shipping
through the Panama canal and exclude everybody else on earth from its use.

SPECIAL RATES TO BE GIVEN IN INSURANCE

Ten Per Cent Reduction Provided
Where Companies Are Affected by Insurance Clause of Compensation Act.

Under the insurance feature of the workmen's compensation law, insurance will be given to those affected by the law at 10 per cent reduction from the approved rates of the insurance manual. The insurance manual is the standard of rates issued by the State Insurance Department, which is not yet ready, but will be made public shortly. No matter what those standard rates are those who participate in the insurance under the workmen's compensation law will pay 10 per cent less.

As all companies doing business in Pennsylvania are compelled to adhere to the rates fixed by the manual,
it will be seen that the advantage of a 10 per cent decrease is accorded those who come under the new law. The minimum premium has been fixed at $.50. Action on these two important matters was taken by the State Workmen's Insurance Board which made the announcement through State Treasurer Young, its chairman Thursday.

RADICAL CHANGES IN CHINA

Republican Government Doing Many Things, Among Others Breaking
Through Historic Wall.

The great wall which has surrounded the city of Peking for many centuries is undergoing an unusual change. Peking is laid out in a symmetrical form, with nine gates leading through the great wall. Each side has two gates except the front, where an extra central gate—the Chien men—leads directly into the forbidden city, the central enclosure of Peking. This Chien men, or front gate, is the one most seriously crowded with traffic, and yet tradition up to the present day has never permitted it to be enlarged nor any other gate to be broken near it in order to relieve the congestion of rickshaws, carts, donkeys, motor cars, camels and heavy-laden human beasts of burden—coolies.

The present republican government is by no means so superstitious as the old exclusive Manchurian regime, but Yuan Shi-kai must take into consideration the superstitions of the people. The gate through which former emperors passed in and out of Peking was opened immediately after the republic was established; but only a few days after it had been thrown open to the public a mutiny of the troops took place in Peking, and much of the town was looted. The cause of the calamity was laid to the credit of the newly opened gate, whereupon it was immediately closed and has never since been swung upon its hinges.

Since the republic has been well established a number of changes in the minor inner walls have taken place, notably two new gates having been broken in one of these inner walls; and as no calamity has befallen the city, the government is now making bold efforts to relieve the congestion at the Chien men by breaking two new gates through the great wall.

The wall is forty or fifty feet high and forty or fifty feet thick. The work is a difficult task because the excellent mixture of cement of former days has fastened the bricks like stone together with remarkable firmness. It is expected that the sections of another smaller wall will be found within this large wall, the smaller one probably being that which Marco Polo described in the account of his visit to the famous capital of Kublai Khan.

Ways of Petrograd Polics.

Count Benckendorff, the Russian ambassador, who is in mourning for the loss of his son, Count Peter, killed in action, had among his predecessors in the title one who told a curious story of the thoroughness of the Petrograd police in the early nineteenth century. He had lost his pocketbook containing a considerable sum, gave notice and had the money restored to him within a day or two, without the pocketbook. Shortly after he found that the pocketbook, still containing the original notes, was not lost, but had slipped into the lining of his fur coat. Naturally, he asked whence had come the restored money. He discovered that the police, rather than admit failure, had collected the money among themselves—Dundee Advertiser.

Cucumber Jelly Salad.

Pare and grate four large cucumbers, add one and one-half cupsful of boiling water, twelve peppercorns, one teaspoonful of chopped onion and scant one-half teaspoonful of salt; let simmer 20 minutes, add one-half box gelatin softened in one-half cup of cold water, stir until dissolved, then strain through a double thickness of cheesecloth. Line a mold with slices of fresh cucumber, fill with the jelly when it begins to thicken and let harden on ice. Unmold and serve on a bed of watercress.

Bright Shades.

For brightening a large living room with a dark wall covering one might select window shades with gorgeous designs, or greenish brown branches or just large, conventionalized red or mulberry flowers, with ample foliage. For a brown room shades with long sprays of the rich golden glow as a decoration would be successful.

Washable Paper.

Washable paper, such as is used to paper the walls of bathrooms, is an excellent substitute for oilcloth for covering pantries or other shelves, and is much cheaper. It may be held in place by thumb tacks, or cut wide enough to come over the edge of the shelf and be pasted down.

Price of Drugs Fixed.

The German government has for years fixed the retail price of drugs, even to the extent of designating what must be charged for bottle, cork, label or ointment box used in dispensing the medicine.

Why Vaccination Pays.

Statistics show that to vaccinate a person against smallpox at public expense costs about twenty-five cents, while the disease itself costs the public on an average about $50 per case.

Happiness.

"I have tried all sorts of happiness, and it never lasts" said a spoiled, petulant, cynical woman. "Did you ever try forgetting yourself for six months?" said a shrewd listener. The question went to the heart of the trouble. To paraphrase an old proverb, when self comes in at the door, happiness flies out of the window.

Sausage Bundles.

Roll out plain paste in six-inch squares, rather thin. Cut frankfur sausages in thin slices, rejecting the skin, and lay the slices in two rows in the center of the piece of paste; double, pinch ends together and fold as you would do up a bundle, wetting the edges to make them stick; then set away on ice until ready to bake. Bake in hot oven 15 minutes and serve hot with French or German mustard.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved
by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Louisville, Ky.—"I think if more suffering women would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound they would enjoy better health. I suffered from a female trouble, and the doctors decided I had a tumorous growth and would have to be operated upon, but I refused as I do not believe in operations. I had fainting spells, bloated, and could hardly stand the pain in my left side. My husband insisted that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so thankful I did, for I am now a well woman. I sleep better, do all my housework and take long walks. I never fail to praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for my good health."—Mrs. J. M. RESCH, 1900 West Broadway, Louisville, Ky.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Pay attention to this—

PAY attention to your clothes, Sir—see that they're not "Tom, Dick and Harry" styles—that the woollens haven't been made to sell in car load lots, that a battery of sewing machines hasn't tried unsuccessfully to imitate the craft of the journey-man tailor.

Pay attention to those things—they're important. See that your clothes are custom tailored—to fit you, to please you, to lift you out of the "every day" class.

Custom Tailoring guarantees the correctness of your appearance, respect for your taste, admiration for your wardrobe. And no successful substitute has ever been found.

AMONG THE THEATRES

COYLE—CHARLEROI

On Monday of this week Valeska Suratt the emotional actress was featured in "The Soul of Broadway" a highly dramatic picture portraying episodes in the lives of the leisure class of the great metropolis. In this picture Miss Suratt wore many beautiful and startling gowns of the latest design thus making it really a fashion show. On Tuesday "The Explorer" a picture of the wilds of Africa was shown. Mary Miles was featured in "Emmy of Stork's Nest" a five part picture based upon the novel of the same name. "Twins Ever Thus" a tripple love story from the prehistoric time up until the present day was shown Thursday featuring Elsie Janis in the leading role of each part.

MAJESTIC—CHARLEROI

Marie Dressler, the famous comedian enacted the role of Tillie in "Tillie's Tomato Surprise" a clever comedy which was shown at the Majestic theatre Monday. On Tuesday "Silver Threads Among the Gold" a play adapted from the song of the same name was shown. Richard J. Jose appeared in the feature role of this picture. On Wednesday the feature picture was "Strathmore" an excellent production by the Mutual company. A variety program of high class subjects was shown Thursday. "Caught," a three-part picture was one of the chief features of the program. On Friday "Divorced" a five part drama was shown. "The Pursuing Shadow," an interesting drama has been programmed for Monday with a number of equally good pictures for the remainder of the week.

PALACE—CHARLEROI

One of the biggest hits made in vaudeville at a local house was that recorded by Nero, the famous educated horse at the Palace theatre the fore part of this week. With tricks that were out of the ordinary, Nero furnished examples a plenty of cultivation and refinement. Sweeney and Rooney, comedians, singers and dancers and Dan Gracey an Irish monologist had entertaining acts. The latter part of this week Manager Barnhart presented a good program. Wolf and Groves, in high class entertainment featuring the "The Interrupted Story," are pleasing. Jack Bunkham and the Steele Sisters have an act of singing, dancing and comedy acting that is worth while. Frederick Terry is presenting an interesting monologue stunt. The moving picture attractions include this week "The Harvest" in three reels and "The Ruling Power," in three good reels.

STAR—CHARLEROI

the gratification of the Star theatre audiences this week included some high class pictures that were of the single reel and two part sort. "Pinto Ben" was a two reel Broncho film of Monday night. Others that night were "Mixed Wires" and "Edition De Luxe." In two reels Tuesday night "Fatal Hour" was a good feature, as was the single reel drama, "Only a Messenger." "Keno Bates, Liar," in two reels, Glorianna's Getaway," and "Jerry's Day" were attractive picture dramas of Wednesday night. On Thursday an interesting program was presented including the film, "Bold Impersonation," in two reels, the Mutual weekly and "His Mysterious Profession." The coming Saturday the two part film, "Reincarnation," and others will be shown.

ALVIN—PITTSBURG

"Nobody Home," the musical comedy success by Guy Bolton, Paul Rubens and Jerome Kern, will be presented at the Alvin next week with the original cast headed by Lawrence Grossmith. The story concerns the adventures of Freddie Popple, of Ippleton, England, who comes to New York to meet his brother, Vernon, a professional dancer; of his meeting with Tony Miller, prima donna of the Winter Garden, with whom he falls in love and later marries. The play, which takes rank as the season's best musical comedy, is full of the most delightful, syncopating music ever turned out by that successful composer, Jerome Kern.

DAVIS—PITTSBURG

A program of vaudeville consisting of Keith's best quality, selected under the scrutinizing supervision of Harry Davis, will be given at the New Davis theatre next week, beginning Monday afternoon, November 15, with daily matinees. Among the very interesting announcements which the bill sets forth is the engagement of Lew Dockstrader, the celebrated minstrelman. It will be the first time this American humorist has appeared on a vaudeville stage in Pittsburgh and it is doubly interesting to note that on this occasion he will personate "Teddy" in a monologue entitled "My Policies." William Pruett, the well known basso who supported Fritz Scheff in "Mlle. Modiste" and Emma Trentini in "The Firefly," is to appear in "A Holland Romance," a miniature one-act opera in which he will be the support of Charles Orr and Company. Bert Fitzgibbon, the original "Daffydill," now that nutting time is here, is coming with some more of his ludicrous "nut" comedy. Mr. Fitzgibbon, is "the nuttiest nut of all the nuts." J. Warren Keane and Grace White promise a combination of sleight-of-hand, bright patter, good music and tricks. In an act of neatness and cleverness, Adonis, after two years spent in Europe, will bring a sage little entertainer named Pierre, with whom he will introduce certain specialties which cannot be disclosed in advance. The Three Ankers, known as America's navy gymnasts, are "blue jackets" who will perform some exceptional acrobatic exploits. A variety of other attractions, besides new moving pictures, will be seen in addition to those enumerated.

PITT TEAM WATCHING CLOSELY TECH TEAM

Warner's Men Not To Take Things Easy With Plaid Players Tomorrow—State Coming on Thanksgiving Day.

University of Pittsburgh championship football team has another hard proposition on its hands Saturday when the undefeated Carnegie Tech eleven is met at Forbes field. Tech has been making a record only second to that of Pitt and W. & J. this year and the Plaid adherents really believe they have a chance to win over the Blue and Gold. That Coach Warner does not consider it a cinch is shown by the fact that he called for practice Monday night after the W. & J. game and insisted that every man who went through that gruelling game should report.

Carnegie Tech is coached by Walter Steffen, former University of Chicago quarterback and the western star has taught his proteges a lot of football—the wide open style that keeps an opposing team on the go every moment of the game. The Plaid has not lost a single game this year and capped the climax Saturday by defeating the Case School team at Cleveland by a wide margin. Those who saw Tech perform at the Forest City claim they would be hard for any team in the country to defeat.

Although Pitt defeated W. & J. the conqueror of Yale, by the decisive score of 19 to 0 there is no case of "swelled head" in the Blue and Gold camp and Capt. Williamson's men realize they will have their hands full with both Tech and Penn State. Many look on the State team as a harder proposition than W. & J. Tech, with her open football, is dangerous at any stage of the game, also. Big crowds will witness both games.

The defeat of W. & J. after three years of reverses at the hands of the Red and Black was sweet revenge for the University eleven and every man on the team is anxious to wind up the season without losing a game. If this can be done, Pitt will have a good claim to the college championship of the east.

To the people of Charleroi we make this offer—Come to our store and buy a bottle of Vinol, if it does not cure your chronic cough or hang-on cold, we will give your money back. Read this convincing letter.

I spent a great deal of money in search of relief, but failed until I used Vinol but it has acted like a charm. I can lie down and sleep all night without coughing and one night's rest such as I now enjoy is priceless. Since I have symptoms of asthma and it is a genuine pleasure to testify to the excellence of Vinol." W. B. McMurtrie, Station Agent, M. & O. Ry. Co., Wilkesville, Ill.

and paid fines of $500 and costs. They were granted paroles under the usual conditions. Subsequently information was made against Mr. Shaw.

In two cases in which Paul Skus was indicted for violating the liquor laws the defendant entered a plea of nolo contendere. Mike Mosko also entered the same plea. Both these men were agents for Mr. Shaw and did business in the Burgettstown section. Sentence was suspended until December 13. In all these casts it is understood that fines and costs will be paid and paroles granted under the usual conditions which include a promise not to do business in this county.

The case of the commonwealth against George Belski of Burgettstown, a liquor agent for Joseph Weiser a wholesale dealer of East Liverpool, O., has been put over until today.

William Sethman of Monongahela, whose name often appears on criminal trial list, was convicted of charges of assault and battery and of felonious breaking and entry and larceny. He was sentenced to pay the costs, fine of $2 and to undergo imprisonment in the workhouse for eight months. Because William stole 2 chickens and a turkey from William Nelson of Carroll township he got into trouble with his wife. The theft of the chickens led to the assault charge brought by Mrs. Sethman. She testified that on the night of September 29, last he came home about midnight, shook her roughly and told her to get up and dress some chickens for him. She refused, she said, for the reason that she believed he had stolen the chickens. Then, she said, he choked her, beat her and otherwise abused her. He then made his daughter get up and dress the poultry. Sethman did not deny he had stolen some chickens, but denied he had stolen them from Mr. Nelson.

Nick Ralich of the Burgettstown section was acquitted of a charge of carrying concealed weapons. The costs were divided equally between the defendant and Sam Rosanovich.

Frank Virgi and Sam Virgi, miners working at the Vesta No. 5 mine at Fredericktown, entered pleas of guilty to changing coal checks. They were each fined $1 and costs and given three months in jail.

Regulating Electric Lamps.
The demand for regulating the degree of light from an electric lamp has resulted in a lamp which has been recently exploited, containing two separate filaments of the lamp, which may be operated separately or together, giving the lamp a rating of 200 watts, with each filament taking 100 watts. A consumption of 0.6 watt per candlepower is claimed for this lamp, and it has a life of 2,000 hours if the filaments are burned separately, or 1,000 when they are burned together.

Climate Failed; Medicine Effective

Sufferers from tuberculosis often think that medicine will not help them. Fresh air, regular habits and good food and in restoring health, but more is often needed. Many have been restored to health by the following treatment.
Weldon, Ill.
"I am a sufferer from tuberculosis. Through your instrumentality I have been saved from a premature grave. On December 14, 1904, I was taken with Typhoid pneumonia, which developed into tuberculosis. I was in the hospital for two months. I was then sent to Fort Worth, Texas, and later to Canon City, Colorado. After being there two weeks my physician informed me that my case was hopeless. Three weeks later I returned home, weighing 105 pounds. The doctor having given me no assurance of reaching there alive. On July 14, 1905, I began taking Eckman's wonderful remedy for Lung Trouble. Now I am stout and well and can do any kind of work about my farm. I am a grateful debtor to Eckman's Remedy." (Abbreviated).
